91 degrees, 54 minutes, 00 seconds West

Focus now and describe the target area to me.

#25: Aerial view...Canada.

#66: Describe the imagery which makes you say Canada. Canada is a conclusive statement.

#25: (Static on the machine). ~~North America~~, upper portion.

#66: Describe. Do you see a visual map? Do you see a shape that looks like the continental mass? What is the perception that makes you say this?

#25: Globe, picture.

#66: All right.

#25: North America. Upper half

#66: Focus now closer:

34 degrees, 39 minutes, 00 seconds North
91 degrees, 54 minutes, 00 seconds West

#25: Water..lake type..small lakes, big lakes...
..pontoon raft..on a lake.

#66: Explain associated imagery which gives you overlay.

#25: Clear image, Pontoon raft....drums...and wood..
on 50 gal drums

#66: Is it overlay as opposed to imagery?

#25: I don't know.

#66: Look for the target:
34 degrees, 39 minutes, 00 seconds North
91 degrees, 54 minutes, 00 seconds West

#25: ~~Memory trace...memory trace...~~ Waldens Pond, Boston.

#66: Not understood...coordinate

#25: Imagery of Boston and Logan Airport..highway in Boston tunnel...aerial view of the Great Lakes.

#66: Describe relative position of observation.

#25: Above...southeast.

#66: Okay. Instead of looking at the lakes look straight.

#25: X shape...highway

#66: Move down.

#25: Green grass around X shape highway overpass...one highway goes under another one.

#66: Describe the area surrounding the area.
34 degrees, 39 minutes, 00 seconds North
91 degrees, 54 minutes, 00 seconds West

#25: Spruce trees...evergreen...~~Sp... evergreen hill terrain~~

~~feeling I am inside a huge dome.~~

#66: Tell me about your feeling.

REMOTE VIEWING SESSION #880

(DRAWING NARRATIVE)

#25: We'll describe the drawings now. My first image ...drawing is the drawing of the X that was reported soon after I had the aerial image of the Great Lake area...and went down ...attempt to drawing.... that X I think it was highways road intersections. Each of these four corners are triangles of the X where grassy areas. The upper one had concrete pad which I've drawn in there. I tried to do everything I could to make the concrete pad to make it into something. It didn't turn into anything. I tried to put a ... (not audible) that stuck around for a little while and (not audible) so I didn't draw one (not audible) underground facility. If it's an underground facility it's inside a three foot deep concrete pad. Because that's all I could get out of it. There were trees surrounding the area. Those were evergreen trees, and then i had some overlay problems. I saw a road on a farm in Alabama when I was younger we had a farm there..I saw cultivated fields. Like the fields we had where we grew crops.

#66: Okay. Let me understand what happened to you mentally here. Your first thing was you actually saw a memory trace of the farm you grew up on.

#25: Yes.

#66: Then what happened?

#25: Then, well, I actually saw a part of it (not audible) road that bordered a field and, of course (not audible) ...This is a particular one that I liked, I guess, because it had a few trees between the road and field.

#66: Okay. And, that was readily identifiable to you? You remembered that.

#25: Yes. I remember that from memory.

#66: And, then what happened?

#25: Then I saw the cultivated field. Then I saw ~~farm equipment like thrashers..large expensive..~~

#66: That's fine. You're thinking too much. Spit out the words. What are the...land mass, middle America land mass. What other big things do you have? Outside, inside combinations, maybe.

#25: Yeah.

#66: Also, you have...what else?

#25: I don't know what you're asking for.

#66: Cultivated lands.....

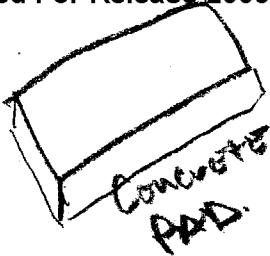

#25: Oh, yeah, yeah. Farm equipment, cultivated lands.. road X shape...fields...trees. It was fairly new.

#66: Okay. Anything else?

#25: No.

#66: Okay. Fine.
